

WEDDINGS AT THE PLOUGH

The Plough Hotel and Restaurant is an ideal location weddings, situated in the Cotswold village of Clanfield with an ideal photographic backdrop.

The Plough is a 17th Century Gentleman's House set in its own grounds with 11 en-suite bedrooms. Clanfield Church (partly Norman) is within walking distance of The Plough.

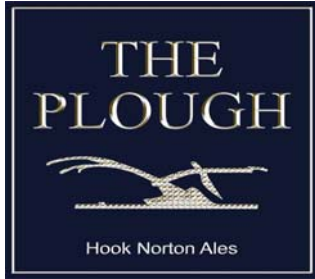

The Plough can be used for many different styles of wedding but the main advantage is that the wedding can have the sole use of the property and not just part, as in many hotels giving you that special feeling of exclusivity.

The format of a wedding reception can take many different forms from a simple wedding breakfast on a Saturday afternoon, followed by an evening reception if required to the full wedding weekend which includes accommodation on Friday night with a private dinner (for the bride and grooms family) followed by the Saturday wedding breakfast with an evening reception (maybe with extra guests) and finishing off with a Sunday morning brunch for all resident guests. Weather permitting, then you and your guests can have use of the terrace with the backdrop of the 17th Century building (ideal for photographs).

We very much specialise in tailoring the wedding for your needs and we are not restrained by rigid wedding packages.

The internal capacity of The Plough is 60 after this number the grounds lend themselves to a marquee.

As you know it is very hard to give a firm quotation for your wedding until we meet with you to discuss your needs. It is very helpful for you to advise us of your budget at an informal meeting.
